As you drive up to “Old Towne” it should stir your imagination, creating a bit of a mystery. What is this steel building doing with its entry framed by an old bridge arch? What might be inside?

“Old Towne” is owned by the Dotseth's who are dedicated to regional history in all its aspects. Once inside you will understand that this special building contains artifacts and displays of old Menomonie along with lumbering era memorabilia.

See More at Menomonie on September 15, 2017.
