Introducing FHAW Woodchips

Welcome to the first issue of FHAW Woodchips, an electronic newsbrief that will deliver FHAW news, upcoming events and select articles related to our Wisconsin forests and the interests of our members. Woodchips will be delivered once a month while the FHAW newsletter, Chips and Sawdust, will continue to be distributed quarterly. Feel free to send me your feedback, comments and topics of interest at schnitzler.donald@charter.net.

W.D. Connor Induction into Hall of Fame

W.D. Connor, Sr. was inducted into the Wisconsin Forestry Hall of Fame Friday, August 16th at the Camp 5 Museum complex in Laona, Wisconsin surrounded by Connor descendants and forest history enthusiasts.

Tom Albrecht the chairman of the Wisconsin Society of American Foresters Hall of Fame Committee introduced the participating organizations and explained that Wisconsin Forestry Hall of Fame recognizes outstanding contributions to Wisconsin forestry.

Historical re-enactor, Mark T. Nelson, appeared as W.D. Connor talking about his life. Mary Connor Pierce then shared memories of her grandfather. Video presentation available here

A look at Wood Use in Nonresidential Construction

Low-rise nonresidential buildings are an important market for lumber, engineered wood products, and structural and nonstructural wood panels in the United States. In a cooperative study between the Forest Products Laboratory (FPL) and major wood industry associations, researchers evaluated the types and quantities of solid wood used in buildings, such as factories, churches, and schools, with six or fewer stories above ground level. Flambeau River Paper Completes $2 Million New Headbox Installation on PM#3 at Wisconsin Mill

Flambeau River Papers, one of North America's "greenest" paper mills, completed installation of the new headbox on Paper Machine No. 3. The $2 million plus investment, which controls flow and distribution of fiber, will improve the mill's current grades while allowing the manufacture of additional specialty printing and writing papers.
